

BIO
RANDY D. BRIGGS

Randy Briggs became a volunteer Board Member for the County of Summit Developmental Disabilities Board in January 2009. He brings a wealth of knowledge with over twenty-five years as a private practice attorney, a litigation attorney appearing before state, national and international courts, and as a former magistrate for the Akron Municipal Court.

Randy was born in Dunkirk, New York, graduated from the University of Akron School of Law and has been married for over 35 years to Kim. They have one daughter and one granddaughter.