

A program offered by the Summit County Developmental Disabilities Board, and coordinated through BlickClinic

SCHEDULE OF CLASSES

SUMMER SESSION

JUNE 2011

The COLLEGE FOR LIVING is a program provided by the Summit County Developmental Disabilities Board. This program, in keeping with the agency's mission, provides an opportunity for individuals with disabilities to learn and play in the community where they live. If you would like more information on the Summit DD Board, visit their website at www.summitdd.org

BLICKCLINIC is a private, nonprofit, outpatient clinic that began in 1969 with a group of parents of children with developmental disabilities and a few volunteer professionals. Together, they developed the Clinic into a single, comprehensive source of diagnostic evaluation, treatment, and support group services to persons with developmental disabilities. For more information, visit their website at www.blickclinic.org

If you would like to receive this brochure via email, send your request to mike.smeltz@blickclinic.org. Please note that you will still be required to mail in your class registration along with payment.

The Class Descriptions and Registration Form are also available online at <http://www.blickclinic.org/public/services/collegeforliving.cfm> or <http://www.summitdd.org/en-US/SYN/10497/PageTemplate.aspx>
